Hi Jennifer,

I was looking into how Erie County Water Authority handles FOIL requests and wanted to reach out about the legal-review side.

FOIL requests, litigation, and investigations keep growing, but legal teams rarely get more staff to manage them.

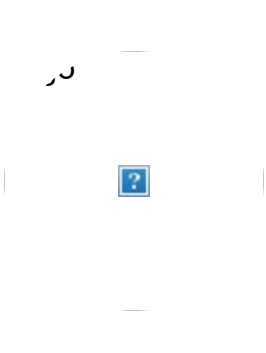

When preservation, review, redaction, and response live in different systems, deadlines and defensibility become harder to control.

Is your office involved in that process today?

Appreciate any response you can provide.

Thanks,

Kam
