To Whom It May Concern:

On 2.6.22, @ Approximately 7:00 A.M I heard my son banging on the basement wall, I thought it was due to a bird or bat that may have found it's way in the walls again. He then called me and told me that I needed to come down to the basement I told him I was not going to come and see a bird, bat or rat, he said no Mom you REALLLY need to come down here like now. I turned the light on to the basement and didn't even make it down the first step as I seen my son's sneakers, pillows and other items floating around I <sup>fell</sup> feel to my knee's crying hysterically which woke my daughter up, I told my son NOT to get out of bed being that all of our surge plugs, extension cords and other electronics were submerged in water. I went outside to find out what was going on and the gentleman from the water authority told me there was a 24 foot water main break I was crying asking what I should do regarding my son being in the basement, I asked if I should call the Fire Dept and he stated he cant really advise me on what to do but then suggested to call 911, I went back in the house and did just that, I kept telling y son DO NOT get out of bed, I was transferred to the Fire Dept and they came within 10 min's (4-5 Fire Fighters) They were going to shut off my electricity but were concerned about my sump pump turning off, the Firefighter stated there was about 10 inches of water so far and was amazed how much water damage was done and said he felt so bad for me. We were able to get my son out, they advised I Call ServPro which I did and they stated if I had water in the basement still they do not remove that I have to call the Fire Dept Back which I did and got transferred 3 times, she stated I may not get thru due to a fire that was going on. I finally got ahold of someone after explaining my story 3 times and he stated they no longer remove water anymore which I feel is ridiculous that I was getting the run around especially because I pay over $6000 in taxes, they advised I call ServPro again, which I did they advised they will come out once the water drains, I sat on my basement stairs and waited for the water to drain. Once it did, I called them back and advised it was safe to come to my home. The gentleman from the water authority came to my basement to Unplug everything that was plugged in and submerged in water and advised I call the Water Authority first thing in the morning to file a claim. I told him that ServPro was on their way and won't be able to get thru due to them blocking traffic but he stated he will let them thru. Two workers from Servpro came to drop off 3 Huge Dehumidifier Units and to extract as much water from the carpets as possible. Mind you I have a full finished basement 2 bedrooms, half bath, Laundry Room, Storage areas and Huge Living Room Area. I also work from home in the basement and all my work equipment was down there as well. I have not been able to work since 2.7.22 so I am missing work as well as wages. The very 1st night, I had no heat or hot water so I took all 3 of my kids to my sisters house for the night. I didn't want to be away from my house in case something happened. My Neighbor Mark who's house was also affected came over to try and get my water tank going but to No avail, it was too wet but was able to get my heat going however, somewhere thru the night, the heat turned off as well. ServPro advised they will send someone out every other day to check on their equipment however, they only came out once and advised I was unable to do any laundry due to so much power being used at once so I had to keep lugging laundry to my sisters house. I was told by Servpro that it takes up to 72 hrs for Mold to settle in, my middle son has asthma and we are all cramped upstairs with loads of laundry everywhere. On 2.11.22, a 20 Foot Pod was delivered to my home which they advised would be $200 a month. On 2.14.22, Servpro came out at 9:00 A.M to Finally start ripping up the carpet in the living room area which by the way, has my entire house smelling like mildew, they originally told me I would be getting a Dumpster but they had one of their company trucks. During that first trip, they removed the following items that were destroyed:

2 Heaters

2 Dehumidifiers

1 Xbox and 4 Controllers

1 Xbox 360 and Games

1 Play Station and Games

Several Sneakers which some are valued over $200

Hoodies (1) valued over $70

2 Vacuum Cleaners

1 Polaroid Speaker

Mini Coca Cola Fridge

Slippers, Socks, Underwear, T-shirts,

Several Rugs

Video Games

Comforter Sets/Bed in the Bag

Towels

2 Xmas Trees and Décor

Mattress Pad (Full Size)

Several DVD's, VHS Tapes and Cd's

Books

Photo Albums which are irreplaceable and sentimental to me

2 Hampers with clothes in it

2 Storage Cubes

2 Lamps

1 TV

Gaming Chair

Tony Little Gazelle Exercise Machine

School Supplies

I was advised that all 3 Couches will need to be replaced as well, both boys dressers and beds as well as a full size mattress and box spring.

Servpro left and stated they will be back Thursday, Feb 17th to Pick up those items as well as rip out the carpet In my boys room. I am going to see if I can locate the receipt for my carpet which I Pd between $3000 to $4000. They called to tell me that an estimated bill so far Im at $5600 and my Flood Policy is only $5000 so I am beyond my Cap. Stohls Environmental Came on 2.14.22 as well and charged me $535.00 for Asbestos testing and on 2.15.22 ServPro came out to remove 2 of the Dehumidifiers because that is running both my entire bill up including my Electric Bill. They stated the $5600 does Not even include what they will be doing with the final clean up and moving stuff to the pod, they will be scrubbing the floors and then using several fans to dry the floors. My Ins Adjustor send me an Email that I have over $15,000 in damages alone, ($500 Deductible) they have to cut into the dry wall, replace the doors and all the baseboards, mind you, I purchased my home in Dec 2015 and my Finished basement was done and complete in March/April of 2016. All of my hard work, time, dedication and money destroyed in a matter of hours that was beyond my control..

The estimate from the adjustor does NOT include the contents in my home, that is where my 2 boy reside now we are inconvenienced, and again I'm missing work as well, this Friday, 2.18.22 will be 2 weeks.
Also, my driveway has Several cracks that were not there prior. The sump pump was replaced Tuesday 2/15/22.

Thank you,

Alicia M. Maymi
