Claimant's Statement (please be specific):

I was making a right onto Alberta drive from Maple Road. I was in the right hand lanes and there was damage to the road. I was unable to change to the left lane, as there was a car just coming past me on my left. I went through the large hole and both the tires on my front and rear passenger side went into the hole.

There is damage to the right front shock, control arm and mounting plate

All statements herein are made under penalty of perjury.
